III.—Copy of Minutes as to Appointment of Paid Monitors and Pupil Teachers in National Schools.

Board, 24 July 1845.

PRESENT:

The Archbishop of Dublin, E. C.	Robert Holmes, Esq., Unitarian.
The Provost of Trinity College, E. C.	Alex. Macdonnell, Esq., E. C.

The Secretary brings under the notice of the Commissioners, the arrangements necessary for carrying into effect the plan already sanctioned for the payment of monitors in each district.

Ordered, That the number of paid monitors be limited to two males and one female in each district, to be recommended by the superintendents; that the payment be at the rate of 4 l. for the first year, 5 l. for the second year, 6 l. for the third, and 7 l. for the fourth; to be paid half-yearly, upon a satisfactory report being received from the superintendents on the conduct of each monitor. The arrangement to commence from the 30th September next.

Note.—The object in view in appointing these monitors, is set forth in the following extract from the Tenth Report of the Commissioners for the year 1843:—

"We propose, should our means be adequate to the purpose, to have in future a certain number of paid monitors in some of our best schools, and that they should be educated for the office of teaching. We intend that they should be selected by the local superintendent, and when of a suitable age that they should be received at our training establishment, from which they may be sent to undertake schools as opportunities offer. We hope in this way, without any considerable increase of expense, to provide gradually a supply of teachers of superior description, and thus to add most materially to the benefits which the national schools are already conferring on the country."

The Minute of July 1845 applied to all classes of schools; and of the number of monitors originally appointed, some were appointed to convent and monastic schools.

Board, 1 August 1862.

PRESENT:

Rev. Dr. Henry, Presbyterian.	The Solicitor-General, E. C.
Right Hon. the Lord Chancellor, E. C.	Laurence Waldron, Esq., M. P., R. C.
James Gibson, Esq., Presbyterian.	John O'Hagan, Esq., R. C.
Right Hon. the Attorney-General, R. C.	Right Hon. A. Macdonnell, E. C.

Brought up report of sub-committee of the 31st July 1862. Extract from report as follows:—

King's Inn-street Female (Convent) National School. Recommended, that the head and district inspector be at liberty to select from amongst the monitresses, two young persons to serve as pupil teachers, at a salary of 20 l. a-year each.

Ordered, That this report be confirmed.
